DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 1 to 3, drawn to a magnetic powder having the composition;

wherein

T is Fe and/or Co,

M is Pt and/or Pd,

Z is at least one member selected from the group Ag, Cu, Bi,

Sb, Pb and Sn,

X is 0.3 to 0.7,

Y is 0.7 to 1.0

which powder has a volumetric ratio of ferromagnetic structure in the range of 10 to 100%, saturation magnetization of 20 emu/g or greater and an average primary particle diameter of 30 nm or less, classified in class 148, subclass 300+.

II. Claims 4 to 11, drawn to a method of producing a magnetic powder having the composition;

wherein

T is Fe and/or Co,

Art Unit: 1742

M is Pt and/or Pd,

Z is at least one member selected from the group Ag, Cu, Bi,

Sb, Pb and Sn,

X is 0.3 to 0.7,

Y is 0.7 to 1.0,

wherein the method comprises dissolving metal salts containing T and M and if required Z in a solvent composed of a polyalcohol or a derivative of a polyalcohol and having a boiling point of 270°C or higher, holding the resulting solution at a temperature of 270°C or higher to reduce the metal salts to produce particles having a volumetric ratio of ferromagnetic structure in the range of 10 to 100%, saturation magnetization of 20 emu/g or greater and an average primary particle diameter of 30 nm or less, classified in class 75, subclass 343.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions II and I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process such as for example, any one of the prior art methods discussed in the instant specification at page 1, line 27 to page 2, line 26.
3. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification and because the inventions require a different field of search, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

5. The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

6. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to John P. Sheehan whose telephone number is (571) 272-1249. The examiner can normally be reached on T-F (6:45-4:30) Second Monday Off.
